Turabian Examples

The following sample citations show both the note form and the bibliography form. The numbers preceding the note examples are arbitrarily chosen but are included to show where the numbers should be placed. If a source you have used differs from the samples, consult Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 7th Edition. Copies are available in Permanent Reserves and at the Research Help Desk in Kennedy room 111. Call number: LB2369 .T8 2007(Ref).

Articles (print)

Article in a journal (Following Turabian 7th ed., p.182)

First note form:

Bibliography:

Article in a magazine (Following Turabian 7th ed. p. 186)

First note form:

Bibliography:

Article in a newspaper (Following Turabian, 7th ed. p. 187)

First note form:

Bibliography:
According to Turabian, daily news articles generally do not need to be included in the bibliography (7th ed., 186). The title in the citation can use headline or sentence-style capitalization (7th ed., p. 187).

Books (print)

Book, Single Author (Following Turabian 7th ed., p.163)

First note form:

Book with editor (From Turabian 7th ed., p. 164)

Chapter in an edited book (Following Turabian 7th ed., p.179)

Citing from a database

Newspaper Article, online database (Following Turabian 7th ed., p. 186)

Web site (From Turabian 7th ed., p. 198)

Senior Projects Cal Poly Senior Projects prior to Fall 2009 are available on microfiche, and should be cited as in the first two examples below. Senior Projects from Fall 2009 and later are digitally hosted on the institutional repository and should follow the second pair of examples below. (Following Turabian 7th ed., p. 194)

Before 2009:
First note form: 3. Hector Garcia, “To Be and Not to Be: Quantum Politics in the New Millenium” (senior project, California Polytechnic State University San Luis Obispo, 2001), 12.

(2009+)
