   Remembering Violence in Alice Pung’s Her Father’s Daughter: The Postmemoir and Diasporisation
   A Brewster - Life Writing, 2017 - Taylor & Francis
   ABSTRACT Alice Pung’s postmemoir of the after-effects of political violence maps a discursive trajectory from (1) her father’s survivor memory of the Cambodian genocide, to (2) her own post-memory as a second-generation Asian-Australian, to (3) the latter’s remediation
